Choquette named VP of Gilbane Bldg.; Northern New England area manager

March 04, 2009 - Northern New England

Gilbane Building Company has named Paul Choquette III as vice president. A member of the fifth generation of the Gilbane family, Choquette serves as area manager in the company's Northern New England office, leading business operations and sales activities.

Choquette joined Gilbane's Manchester office in 2005 as business development manager, responsible for the firm's sales efforts in New Hampshire. Prior to joining Gilbane's New England business development team, Choquette went through the Gilbane Management Training Program, gaining exposure in purchasing, scheduling, and other key support services. Choquette also worked for the company's Northeast region as a project superintendent at the $221 million AstraZeneca U.S. Business Center project in Wilmington, Delaware.

Other significant projects he has helped construct include: Eastern Maine Medical Center Master Plan, US Postal Services Northeast Maine Facilities, Fidelity Investments, Inc. Merrimack projects and Mid-Coast Hospital Medical Office Building II.

He graduated in 1997 from Brown University with a bachelor's degree and was awarded the Thomas & William Gilbane Project Achievement Award in 2006.
