IREM Leadership & Legislation Summit April 18th- 22nd

March 18, 2009 - Connecticut

The annual Leadership and Legislative Summit of the Institute of Real Estate Management will be held from April 18th to 22nd at the JW Marriott Hotel in Washington, D.C. The event will feature committee meetings and interactive forums that focus on IREM member interests ranging from chapter operations to legislative issues emerging at the state and local levels.

The Summit brings together leaders in the real estate management industry to discuss critical industry issues such as business challenges and opportunities posed by the current economic crisis; also, technology, workforce development, business competition, risk management, and sustainability.

The Summit's keynote speaker is journalist Ronald Brownstein, political director for Atlantic Media Company with responsibility for coordinating overall political coverage at its publications, which include the Atlantic, National Journal, the Hotline and Congress Daily. Brownstein also is a frequent participant on television programs such as Meet the Press, This Week with George Stephanopolous, the Charlie Rose Show, and Nightline.

HILL VISITS A HIGHLIGHT

A highlight of the Summit is Capitol Hill Visit Day, when IREM members join with members of the CCIM Institute to meet with members of Congress and their key aides. The purpose of the meetings is to promote awareness and understanding of key legislative issues of concern to the commercial real estate industry and to communicate the industry's position on these issues.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

The registration fee for the Summit is $375 until March 20th, and $425 thereafter. Single-day passes also are available; they are priced at $260 until March 20th, and $310 thereafter. Additional conference information and online registration are available at www.irem.org.
