Erland branches into Connecticut; adds Eric Greene as regional manager

April 01, 2009 - Connecticut

Erland Construction, Inc., headquartered in Burlington, Mass., has opened a new branch office in East Windsor to better serve clients in western Mass. and Conn.

The new location at One Hartfield Blvd., Suite 100 will build on Erland's 32-year history of providing award-winning program planning, preconstruction, design/build, and construction management services to a wide array of commercial markets.

Eric Greene has joined Erland as regional manager to oversee this expansion. Greene has 26 years of experience in the commercial construction industry with over 100 projects in the academic, residential, healthcare, and corporate market sectors.

His past affiliations include JPI, Shawmut Design and Construction, Gilbane Building Company, and Sells/Greene Building Company.
