Gilbane Building Co. names Sinnott vice president

April 21, 2009 - Front Section

Gilbane Building Co. has named John Sinnott as vice president. He serves as district manager where he is responsible for overseeing all aspects of R.I. operations, including construction activities, business development and finance to ensure client satisfaction and excellence.

Sinnott rejoined Gilbane in 2008, where he began his construction career in 1980.

He has over 20 years experience in the construction industry, which spans both public and private construction.

Based on his strong commitment to community service, Sinnott pursued personal interests through a two-year volunteer position in Haiti, where he used his construction knowledge to help build healthcare- and infrastructure-related projects.
