New NAI Global reports reveal property prices, trends & business practices in int'l. markets

April 21, 2009 - Spotlights

NAI Global, the world's premier network of commercial real estate firms and one of the largest real estate service providers worldwide, announces two new reports for corporate decision makers and investors that highlight global commercial real estate trends and provide insight into transaction and occupancy practices around the world.

The 2009 International Property Guide provides insight into key local business customs and practices for over 55 countries around the world. The Guide examines acquisition and tenant costs, landlord and tenant responsibilities by region and country. The Guide is especially useful for clients and investors negotiating simultaneous deals across multiple international markets.

The 2009 Global Property Prices & Trends report highlights key demographic data along with current rental rates and investment yields for 137 global markets. The report offers prime net rents, yields, country economic data and rental rate comparisons by property type (office, retail and industrial).

Both reports are available for free download on www.naiglobal.com/publications.

NAI Global is one of the leading commercial real estate services providers worldwide. Headquartered in Princeton, New Jersey, NAI Global manages a network of 5,000 commercial real estate professionals and 325 offices in over 55 countries, and completes over $45 billion in annual transaction volume.
