Jones, Winn and Keith receive John M. Corcoran Award of Excellence

April 30, 2009 - Owners Developers & Managers

Honorees Hubie Jones, Arthur Winn and John Keith were presented with the John M. Corcoran Award for Excellence which recognizes individuals who are dedicated philanthropists whose work creates critical and meaningful change in communities.

Jones has worked to form, rebuild and lead at least 30 organizations across the city.

Winn, chairman of WinnCompanies, and Keith, CEO of Keith Construction based in Stoughton are leaders in the real estate management and development industries who have made significant contributions of time, talent and generosity to numerous organizations in the city and national philanthropic communities. Winn and Keith have combined forces in both business and philanthropic endeavors. The late John Corcoran was a real estate developer and founding member of the St. Mary's Board of Trustees, and a true inspiration to the honorees. St. Mary's Women and Children's Center is a multi-service agency that provides a host of services including Boston's largest family shelter for homeless single mothers with children and the largest shelter in Boston for pregnant and parenting teens and their infants.
