BOMA launches Peer Ambassador program for affiliate members

June 03, 2009 - Owners Developers & Managers

BOMA Boston has launched the new Peer Ambassador Program. This program is aimed at welcoming new affiliate members to BOMA Boston. The Peer Ambassadors (PAs) will assist new members in realizing the benefits of joining the organization.

The program will start off with current affiliate members offering support to new affiliate members and will eventually expand to include industry members as well. We are currently inviting BOMA Boston affiliate members to volunteer to serve as a PAs.
