Lennar Urban Northeast opens sale center for Waterscape in Hingham

December 29, 2007 - Spotlights

Lennar Urban Northeast has opened its sales center for Waterscape, the luxury waterfront community located at Hewitts Cove. Part of the redevelopment of the Hingham Shipyard, Waterscape will consist of 150 two and three-story townhomes and will include amenities such as a private clubhouse with a seaside pool, a workout facility, meeting areas, and a Great Room with a fireplace for large gatherings. The community is within walking distance to the commuter boat from Hingham to Boston's downtown.

Waterscape is being developed by Lennar Urban Northeast. The construction and development management is being handled by Roseland Property Company.

Waterscape is part of a larger redevelopment of the Hingham Shipyard, a mixed-use, pedestrian-friendly property with upscale retail stores, restaurants, a movie theater, office space, apartment rentals and public open space including a waterfront park, outdoor amphitheater, ocean-front walking paths and improved commuter boat and marina facilities.
