Dion of Metro Walls completes OSHA program

June 17, 2009 - Construction Design & Engineering

Wil Dion of Metro Walls Inc. has completed the OSHA 500 Outreach Training Program. As a construction industry outreach trainer, Dion is now authorized to conduct 10- and 30-hour construction industry outreach courses and receive OSHA course completion cards to issue to his students, our employees. This new training also enhances Dion's ability to be more effective when performing OSHA mandated specific training.

Dion has been the company safety director for Metro Walls Inc. for the past two years. Metro Walls is one of the area's top commercial framing and drywall companies, serving all of New England.
