VinCo Props. holds grand opening of The Shops at Chestnut Green

June 24, 2009 - Retail

VinCo Properties, Inc., a Boston-based real estate development company, recently held a grand opening of the retail space at The Shops at Chestnut Green. Entertainment included live music, face painting, a bounce house and much more.

The Shops at Chestnut Green are located across the street from The Offices and The Apartments at Chestnut Green, and consist of 55,000 s/f in retail space. Retailers include Waxy O'Connor's Irish Pub, Babel's Paint and Decorating, Reliable Dry Cleaners, The Learning Experience, Pizza Time, Sharon Credit Union, Supercuts, Tanorama, Foxy Nails, Glee Gifts, Mai Place, Elite Dance Center and Walgreens.

VinCo's president and founder, Vince O'Neill, said, "Despite the current economic situation, we were able to lease up The Shops to full occupancy because of the central location to residential, office and other desirable retail."

Chestnut Green is an adaptive re-use development of the former 136-acre Foxborough State Hospital site into a mixed-use community consisting of retail, commercial, and residential housing units located approximately half a mile north from downtown Foxborough. A strong team of industry leaders stands behind the Chestnut Green development. The development team is led by master developer Vince O'Neill of VinCo Properties, Inc. VinCo Properties is developing The Shops and The Offices and in partnership with Matthew Abrams of Abrams Properties, LLC developing 15 townhomes called The Carriage House Flats and 55 apartments. On the perimeter of the property, Michael Intoccia of Intoccia Construction Company is developing single family homes and Douglas King of Douglas A. King Builders, Inc. is also developing single family homes in addition to 60 town homes.
