Naugatuck River Revival Group holds fundraiser

June 30, 2009 - Connecticut

The second annual canoe and kayak race was held on May 9th, down the Naugatuck River. The race is a fundraiser for the Naugatuck River Revival Group.

Chester Cornacchia, Naugatuck's economic development commission chair, finished the race in first place. Tom Hill III, broker for the Naugatuck Industrial Park, which has an Enterprise Corridor, finished second.

The committee is trying to bring notoriety to the clean Naugatuck River. A fitness trail will be connected all the way from Derby to Torrington.

Waterbury received a $4 million grant to work on its seven mile section. Some sections, including Derby, have already built their fitness trail. It is an economic development tool with a quality of life issue.
