Hamrick joins Center Point Business Advisors

November 28, 2007 - Front Section

According to CenterPoint Business Advisors, Inc. John Hamrick has joined the firm to grow and manage Client Services. Hamrick has had a successful career that includes large and small company environments as well as business start up experience.

In his most recent experience he was the founder and president of Profile Technologies which grew as a business start up out of his work in helping local companies establish, implement, and manage information technologies in their businesses.

Hamrick will focus most of his energy on marketing and business development activities, including web-based, seminar, and direct marketing activities.
