D Scale selected as one of Home Accents Today's 50 Retail Stars

July 22, 2009 - Retail

D Scale, one of the South End's most illustrious new furnishings and accessories stores, has been selected as one of Home Accents Today's 50 Retail Stars. This award is presented to 50 national retailers of home furnishings and accents who demonstrate "a knack for merchandising, are vital members of their communities, and have managed to distinguish themselves from their competition in order to be successful."

D Scale distinguishes itself through its own line, the D Scale Collection of upholstered seating, tables and case goods designed by owner and award-winning interior designer Dennis Duffy, along with international fine furnishings lines including Brazil's Emporio Beraldin, Italian leather sofas by Polaris, as well as contemporary and vintage 20th century furnishings and accessories from South America and Europe.

D Scale serves both retail customers and the trade. It presents products that reflect a designer's eye and an artisan's craftsmanship. Its home furnishings and case good designs are simple and well-proportioned, offering the flexibility to fit in a variety of environments - all with comfort and a touch of glamour. The array of finishes offered for this sleek modern furniture makes them distinctive and interesting. Inspired by the Moderne Movement, D Scale presents modernism as a perspective, not a style.

D Scale was also awarded the International Interior Design Association's 2009 New England Chapter Award for Best Retail Project.
