July 22, 2009 - Retail

TRB's owners, Timothy and Barry Boisvert, are two brothers who not only believe in honesty, trust, and integrity, but also practice it. Their hand shake means you have their word. Construction is in their blood: Tim and Barry's father, Leo, was also in the business. The two brothers used the experience they gained from growing up in construction to fulfill their lifelong dream of owning their own company.

Founded and incorporated by Tim in 1990 (Barry joined in '91), TRB Development Group is a full service general contractor whose experience spans dozens of retail, hotel, healthcare, and restaurant projects representing over $125 million in new construction or renovation. TRB's strength is in building the most efficient and effective team of professionals possible so that your project is serviced properly from the very beginning and stays fast-tracked through Grand Opening.

The use of sophisticated tools, such as computer scheduling software and cost monitoring programs (Primavera Scheduling and Expedition), allows TRB to produce detailed tracking and reporting. Additionally, this analysis includes the review of time impact alternatives for decision making purposes.
