Direct Invest, LLC, a leading real estate company located in Boston, has named Jones Lang LaSalle leasing agent at University Office Park. The 296,839 s/f, first class business campus is situated directly off the Mass. Pike next to Brandeis University.

University Office Park consists of two high performance office buildings at 51 and 95 Sawyer Rd. The buildings feature modern construction and design aesthetics, quality architecture and finishes and distinctive glass atriums. The park offers flexible floor plans and on-site amenities including a fitness center and caf  , outdoor balconies, covered parking and on-site management.

"This is truly a signature suburban business campus," said Peter Evans, principal of Direct Invest.

"Its contemporary design, location, and amenities-rich environment have contributed to its success."

According to Alex Dauria, executive vice president at Jones Lang LaSalle, "University Office Park stands the test of time with its quality image, architecture and convenient location. With direct access to the Mass. Pike entrance, there are no traffic signals between University Office Park, Cambridge, downtown Boston or Logan Airport."

Jones Lang LaSalle's leasing team will be led by Dauria. Working with him on the marketing of University Office Park will be senior vice president Keith Gurtler, associate Brendan Cohn and associate Matt Malatesta.
