Commercial RE News - New England RE Journal

August 25, 2009 - Spotlights

The New England Real Estate Journal, now over 45 years old, reaches 35,000 important decision making industry leaders who depend on and receive the most comprehensive and current coverage in commercial/investment real estate today. The New England Real Estate Journal is published each Friday. The front section includes general real estate information throughout New England that cannot be found on any competitive website. The weekly supplements focus on the most recent commercial/investment news in the specific regions or industries. Also published each week is a Billboard section, our version of a classified and auction section. Our comprehensive and continually growing readership consists of professionals from the following industries:

Appraisal

Architecture

Brokerage

Construction

Engineering

Financial

Investors

Owners

Developers

Managers

Service & Suppliers And more...
