GHAR donates $8,000 to Special Olympics and Habitat for Humanity

September 02, 2009 - Connecticut

The Greater Hartford Association of Realtors (GHAR) Charity Golf Tournament took place on June 8th at the Shuttle Meadow Country Club. Over 80 golfers enjoyed beautiful weather and a picturesque golf course for the fifth annual golf outing that produced over $8,000 for two charities, Special Olympics Connecticut and the Hartford Habitat for Humanity.

"I am delighted to present these two terrific community organizations with donations made possible by the generosity of our participants and sponsors," said Jeff Arakelian, President and CEO of GHAR. "It was a fun day and a successful event."

GHAR would like to extend a special thank you to all of the outing's participants, sponsors and volunteers for making the day such a great success.

GHAR is one of the largest local real estate trade associations in Connecticut, serving 3,700 members in the 57 town Greater Hartford real estate brokerage community. The Association provides technology, training, networking and business support to members, and supports a healthy real estate market by upholding high professional and ethical standards through a Code of Ethics, ongoing education and certification programs. As the advocate for the real estate brokerage industry, GHAR is the Voice for Real Estate in the Greater Hartford region.
