Mutual Bank promotes Finn to assistant vice president of deposit operations

September 15, 2009 - Front Section

Mutual Bank, a community bank with nine branches throughout southeastern Mass. and on Cape Cod has named Margaret Finn of Plympton an assistant vice president, deposit operations, based in the bank's administrative headquarters.

Finn began her career with Mutual Bank 14 years ago, as a part-time teller. She soon became a full-time teller and subsequently held titles of head teller and customer service representative.

In 1999, Finn was promoted to operations supervisor, overseeing a department that at the time was newly developed. Five years later she earned the title of assistant treasurer and assisted in growing the deposit operations department, which presently is responsible for day-to-day operations of the bank's deposit account portfolio, online banking, and the Bank's debit card program.
