September 22, 2009 - Retail

Boston Market has renewed its lease for 4,200 s/f at Quincy Granite Place, a destination retail plaza near Quincy Center. Boston Market was an original tenant when the plaza opened in 2000.

Lease negotiations were handled by Frank O'Neill, broker for The Grossman Companies, Inc. who represented the landlord, 126 Granite Street Trust.

Anchored by TJ Maxx, Quincy Granite Place is also home to iParty, Dress Barn, Olympia Sports, Papa Gino's and Dunkin' Donuts. The 61,400 s/f center at the intersection of Granite St. and Burgin Pkwy. services both a high density residential and daytime office population as it is just minutes from Crown Colony Office Park and several other office complexes. It is a block from downtown Quincy. The plaza is managed by The Grossman Companies, Inc., and is 100% leased.

Based in Quincy, The Grossman Companies, Inc. offers a full range of brokerage services with a focus on leasing and sales of commercial property throughout New England.
