Meet the IFMA Members - Hodas

September 29, 2009 - Owners Developers & Managers

Stuart Hodas is president of Spaceworks. Hodas graduated from Bentley College in 1978 with a degree in marketing. In 1998, Hodas and his brother Ken purchased a small office supply and contract furniture business outside of Boston. The contract furniture business, under Hodas' leadership, was renamed and rebranded in 2001 as Spaceworks. For the last five years, he has been a champion of the sustainable and modular European model of building.

As a result, Stuart focused these energies and developed Spaceworks Architectural Interiors in 2007 to focus on innovation and alternative building models for the construction industry.
