FHO Partners promotes Lyon to senior V.P. and O'Leary to vice president

October 07, 2009 - Front Section

FHO Partners has promoted Ted Lyon to senior vice president and Michael O'Leary to vice president.

Lyon assists numerous corporate clients with their office and laboratory space needs. His focus is on office and R&D space in Cambridge and Watertown, but he takes on national assignments as well. Prior to joining FHO Partners, Lyons was a vice president at Trammell Crow Company. Lyons graduated from Trinity College with a BA degree and received his MBA degree from Boston College.

O'Leary focuses his efforts in the greater Boston suburban office market, specifically along Rte. 128. O'Leary represents both tenants and landlords and works with them to satisfy their office, research & development and light manufacturing space requirements. O'Leary was previously employed as a senior associate at Trammell Crow Co. He is a graduate of Bowdoin College.

"Both Lyon and O'Leary show tremendous dedication to the success of our clients and our business through their hard work and perseverance," said Joe Fallon, managing partner at FHO Partners. "They have become leaders within our firm, and I am pleased to recognize their success."
