Pro Con to build $8.1 million Courtyard by Marriott for Schleicher & Stebbins Hotels and Oleo Corp.

October 13, 2009 - Construction Design & Engineering

Celebration was the overriding theme at a ceremony held on September 10 to mark construction of the first new hotel to be built in Keene in the past several years. The new Courtyard by Marriott hotel will be located in Railroad Sq., one block from the city's downtown business district. Officials from Schleicher & Stebbins Hotels, Oleo Corp., and the city attended the event, along with representatives from local businesses and Keene State College.

Pro Con Inc is the design builder for the $8.1 million hotel project. S&S Hotels and Oleo Corp. are the hotel owners, and Colwen Management will manage the hotel. Laconia Savings Bank is providing the financing.

The hotel's owners intend to make the Courtyard by Marriott LEED certified from the US Green Building Council. Pro Con Inc plans to use regional & recycled materials in construction and incorporate environmentally beneficial strategies in the hotel's development and daily operations.

The 65,795 s/f, 5-story hotel will offer 100 guestrooms, including 4 suites. Plans include a bistro and lounge area, 2100-sf of flexible meeting space, a business center, guest market and an indoor pool and fitness room. Pro Con Inc has scheduled a May 2010 completion date for the new hotel.

Mark Stebbins, principal of Schleicher & Stebbins Hotels welcomed guests to the construction celebration and introduced Christine Thomas of Northern Sites Development Services, Clayton LaBarre of Marriott International, Mary Jane Ricker of Laconia Savings Bank and Dale Pregent, mayor of Keene. Members of the Monadnock Economic Development Corp. and the hotel's management team were also introduced.

"S&S Hotels and Oleo Corp. are very excited to be developing Keene's first green hotel," said Mark Stebbins.

"We look forward to the partnering with the local businesses in Keene and becoming part of this vibrant and charming downtown community," said Stebbins.

Schleicher & Stebbins Hotels' portfolio includes 19 hotel properties throughout the Northeast, including Renaissance, Courtyard by Marriott, Residence Inn by Marriott, Town Place Suites and SpringHill Suites, Homewood Suites by Hilton and Ashworth by the Sea, a full service hotel on the seacoast of New Hampshire.
